

Till Wicker

Charity, Environment and Ethics Rep

Why Me?

- Friendly and motivated first year Economics and Management student
- Active College member: play football for college, head of Marketing for the Catz Ball, attends open meetings
- Organised, dedicated and responsible
- Passionate about charity work as my previous experiences demonstrate

What Would I Do?

- Continue the great work Katy has done in promoting the charity opportunities available
- Raise more money and awareness through various different forms, including college Fifa, darts, croquet, or table tennis tournaments and Take Me Out with reversed roles
- Coordinate with other colleges' Charity, Environment and Ethics reps in order to organise an Oxford University wide charity initiatives with the local community
- Provide more information on local volunteering possibilities, especially to freshers

Previous Charity Experiences

- Travelling to Uganda over the summer for 8 weeks for community service
- Volunteered as a translator at a refugee center in The Hague
- Raised over €10,000 for a charity in Mali through grant proposals
- Volunteer golf coach for children
- Student Ambassador at Catz and previous school
- Many more (feel free to ask at husts)
