ARTICLE I: PRELIMINARY

Names and Objectives

1. The corporate name of the Common Room shall be St Catherine's College Junior Common Room ("JCR").
2. The JCR shall be responsible for promoting the academic, financial, welfare, social and general interests of its Members, and for representing its Members in the affairs of St Catherine's College ("College"), and the University of Oxford ("University"), including before the Oxford University Student Union ("OUSU"). To that end, and subject to this Constitution, the JCR shall adopt and implement such policies and pursue such courses of action as it decides to be appropriate.

Membership

3. Reference in this Constitution to "JCR Members" shall mean Full Members unless otherwise specified.
4. The Full Members of the JCR shall consist of all undergraduate Members of the College who have matriculated and are not recognised by the College as sole Members of the Middle Common Room ("MCR") or Senior Common Room ("SCR"), unless the undergraduate member of the College has opted out of JCR Membership. Those undertaking four-year undergraduate degrees may be recognised as Members of both the JCR, and MCR.
5. JCR Members shall have the rights to:
 - a. Attend, speak, propose motions, and vote at all JCR Open and JCR Extraordinary Open meetings ("JCR Meetings"),
 - b. Vote and stand in the election of JCR Representatives, and vote in Referenda,
 - c. The use and enjoyment of JCR services and facilities for themselves and their guests, for whose conduct they are responsible,
 - d. Opt out of JCR Membership, by sending written notice to the JCR President before the end of 1st week of Michaelmas Term of the year in which they wish to opt out. The said member shall then cease to be a member of the JCR and will not be entitled to vote or stand in JCR elections, or to speak or propose motions in JCR Meetings. It should be noted that former Members of the JCR who opt out may not opt back in to JCR Membership until the following academic year.
6. The Honorary Members of the JCR shall consist of those upon whom honorary JCR Membership has been conferred by JCR resolution, passed by a simple majority at a JCR Meeting. (For "simple majority" see JCR Processes Handbook.)
 - a. Honorary Membership may be revoked at any time by JCR resolution,
 - b. Honorary Members shall have the right to the use and enjoyment of JCR services and facilities only.

Constitution

7. This Constitution details the aims, Membership and Committee of St Catherine's College JCR.

- a. For the procedures which govern the running of the JCR, see the JCR Processes Handbook.
 - b. Both the Constitution and the Processes Handbook are binding documents.
8. The President of the JCR, in consultation with the Secretary, shall be the sole interpreter of the Constitution outside of JCR Meetings.
 9. Amendment of this Constitution shall require a resolution passed by a two-thirds majority at a JCR Meeting, or by vote in an online referendum. (See JCR Processes Handbook.)
 10. The Secretary, in liaison with the IT Rep, shall maintain a complete and current version of the Constitution on the JCR website at all times.
 11. The Constitution shall be presented to the Governing Body of the College for approval every 5 years from Michaelmas 2015. The Governing Body may in its discretion reject or require the JCR to redraft any provision of the Constitution, which it regards as unclear in meaning, or as contrary to the interests and standing of the College or JCR.

Processes Handbook

12. The JCR Processes Handbook is an accompanying document to this Constitution, detailing the procedures which govern the running of the JCR.
 - a. These procedures cover:
 - i. Article I: Preliminary
 - ii. Article II: Concerning JCR Meetings
 - iii. Article III: Concerning Elections and Referenda
 - iv. Article IV: Finance
 - v. Article V: The Administration of St Catherine's Amalgamated Clubs
 - vi. Article VI: Vending Machine Monitors
13. Amendment of the JCR Processes Handbook shall require a resolution passed by a two-thirds majority at a JCR Meeting or by a referendum.
14. Both the Constitution and the Processes Handbook are binding documents.

ARTICLE II: THE JCR EXECUTIVE AND COMMITTEE

- f. Organise a week long programme in celebration of the Arts, “Catz Arts Week”.

Sub-Committees

32. A sub-committee of the JCR may only be set up or dissolved by a resolution of the JCR, or a formal decision of the JCR Committee.
 - a. The Chair of each sub-committee shall be a full member of the JCR, appointed by the President. The Chair of such a sub-Committee shall be the JCR Committee Representative for that sub-committee, and shall co-opt at least one JCR Committee member, with the approval of the Executive, to join the sub-committee.
 - b. Other Members shall be JCR Members selected at the sub-committee Chair’s discretion.
 - c. All Chairs of sub-committees shall report personally to the JCR Executive. They shall also report to the JCR at each ordinary meeting should any JCR member request it, or if the sub-committee wishes to make a report of their own volition (at the discretion of the President when they ask for reports).
 - d. The quorum at all sub-committee meetings shall be 3, and shall always include the Chair and a JCR Committee member.
 - e. Notice of the formation or dissolution, and of the Members, of a JCR sub-committee shall be posted on the JCR notice board and circulated to JCR Members via email.

Compliance and Ejection

33. Upon election, it shall be the duty of JCR Representatives to familiarise themselves and act in accordance with this Constitution and the JCR Processes Handbook, including Article IV of the JCR Processes Handbook, to which JCR Representatives shall pay particular attention.
34. If a JCR Representative fails to uphold their obligations under the Constitution or the Processes Handbook, or otherwise fails to act in the interests of the JCR Committee, the JCR, or the wider College or University, the President or any other JCR Member may,
 - a. Present a petition, signed by at least 60 JCR Members (none of whom may be a JCR Committee member) and supporting the Representative’s vacation of their role, at a JCR Open Meeting,
 - b. Propose that the Representative vacate his or her role,
 - i) Any such proposal by the JCR President shall be circulated to the other JCR Representatives at least 3 days of full term before the JCR Committee meeting at which it will be raised,
 - ii) Any such proposal by a JCR Member other than the President may be signed or anonymous, and shall in either case be sent in writing to the Secretary or, if the proposal concerns the Secretary, to the President, for inclusion on the agenda of the next possible JCR Open Meeting. It shall thereafter proceed as for other motions to the JCR, subject to protection of the anonymity of the proposer. To that end, a JCR Member making an anonymous proposal shall be required to provide a speech in support of it to be read by the Chair of the JCR Open Meeting.

- iii) In receipt of a proposal, the Secretary shall email the JCR as soon as possible with notice of the proposal and an invitation to JCR Members to submit written responses to it. Any responses thus submitted shall be read by the Chair at the relevant meeting without divulging the identity of their author, whose identity shall be treated in the strictest confidence.
- iv) A proposal to revoke a JCR Representative's role shall be voted upon by secret ballot and require a two-thirds majority to pass (each Representative or JCR Member receiving a single vote).

35. If a petition is brought, or a proposal is brought and carried, the JCR Representative shall vacate their role within 48 hours. A by-election for the vacant role shall then be held unless impracticable, in which case the President – in consultation with the JCR Committee and by prompt email notice to the JCR – shall co-opt a JCR Member to fill the vacant role, subject to that Member's agreement.
